KENWORTHY'S CHAMBERS COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

1. Our aim is to always give you an excellent and professional service. However, if you have a complaint or suggestion on how to improve our service, you are invited to let us know.
2. It is not necessary for clients to involve solicitors to make your complaint, but you are free to do so should you wish. There is no restriction or limitation on who can make a complaint to Chambers. If the complaint does not concern Kenworthy's clients service, it may be more suited to consideration under the disciplinary processes of the Bar Standards Board (BSB)
3. Please note that Chambers will only consider your complaint, if it concerns an issue that took place within the last 12 months, or if the issue took place more than 12 months ago, within 12 months from the date you could reasonably have known about the issue. All complaints will be treated with a fair, constructive, and positive attitude and in accordance with the Bar Council Code of Conduct and the Office for the Legal Services Ombudsman.

Complaints made by Telephone.

4. If you would like to speak to someone about your complaint informally, then please telephone the Practice Manager, Maria Rushworth on 0161 832 4036, who is the person nominated by Kenworthy's to handle complaints. If the complaint concerns the Practice Manager, then the matter should be addressed to the Head of Chambers, Mr Barry Grennan.

Kenworthy's Chambers

5. The person you contact will make a note of the details of your complaint and how you would like the matter resolved. They will discuss your concerns with you and aim to resolve the matter on an informal basis. If you are satisfied with the outcome this will be recorded. You may also wish to make a note of the outcome of the telephone discussion for your own records and send a copy into chambers.
6. If your complaint is not resolved on the telephone, or you do not feel the issue has been resolved or dealt with to your satisfaction, you are invited to write to us about it within the next 14 days, in order that it can be formally investigated.

Complaints made in Writing.

7. Kenworthy's has a complaints panel headed by Maria Rushworth (Practice Manger) and or Mr Barry Grennan (Head of Chambers) and made up of experienced members of Kenworthy's, which considers any written complaint.

Please address your letter to The Practice Manager, Mrs Maria Rushworth or Head of Chambers, Mr Barry Grennan

Kenworthy's Chambers

Arlington House

Bloom Street

Salford

M3 6AJ.

Please give the following details:

- Your name and address
- Which Member(s) of Chambers or staff you are complaining about
- The details of the complaint and
- How you would like it to be resolved.

Kenworthy's Chambers

- The written complaint will be recorded. We will, where possible, acknowledge receipt of your complaint within two working days and provide you with details of how your complaint will be dealt with.
8. Within 14 days of your letter being received the Head of the Panel, or his deputy in his absence, will appoint a member of the Panel to investigate your complaint. If your complaint is against the Head of the Panel, the next most senior member of the Panel will be appointed to investigate it. In any case, the person appointed will be someone other than the person you are complaining about.
  9. The person appointed to investigate will write to you as soon as possible to let you know he has been appointed and that he will reply to your complaint within 14 days. If he finds later that he is not going to be able to reply within 14 days, he will set a new date for his reply and inform you of; The nature and scope of the investigation; the conclusion of each complaint; and if they find that you are justified in your complaint, their proposals for resolving the complaint.

Confidentiality

10. All conversations and documents relating to the complaint will be treated as confidential and will be disclosed only to the extent that is necessary. Disclosure may be to the Head of Chambers, Members of our Management Committee and to anyone involved in the complaint and its investigation. This will include the barrister or staff member who you have complained about, the head or relevant senior member of the Panel and the person who investigates the complaint. The Bar Standards Board is entitled to inspect the documents and seek information about the complaint when discharging its auditing and monitoring functions.

Our Records and Data Retention Policy

11. As part of our commitment to client care we make a written record of any complaint and retain all documents and correspondence generated by the complaint for a period of six years. Regular anonymised reports are made to the Management Committee with a view to improving services.

Complaints to The Legal Ombudsman and the BSB

12. We hope that you will use our procedure and will be satisfied with the way we have dealt with your complaint. However, if you are unhappy with the outcome of our investigation or the way in which the complaint was dealt with, you may take up your complaint with the Legal Ombudsman.

The Legal Ombudsman will only deal with complaints from consumers, and therefore only complaints from a barrister's client are within their jurisdiction. Non- clients who are not satisfied with the outcome of this complaints process should contact The Bar Standards Board instead.

Please note that the Legal Ombudsman has time limits in which a complaint must be raised with them. In particular there is a six-month time limit from the conclusion of the investigation by Kenworthy's in which to raise your complaint with the Legal Ombudsman. The time limits are below:

- Six years from the date of the act/omission
- Three years from the date the complainant should reasonably have known there were grounds for complaint (if the act/omission took place before the 6 October 2010 or was more than six years ago)

Kenworthy's
Chambers

- Within six months of the complaint receiving a final response from their lawyer, if the response complies with the requirements in rule 4.4 of the Scheme Rules (which requires the response to include prominently an explanation that the Legal Ombudsman was available if the complainant remained dissatisfied and the provision of full contact details for the Ombudsman and a warning complaint must be referred to them within six months)
